

SOLOMON ISLANDS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

We are searching for an Executive Officer

A new challenging and exciting position

Ensure the private sector remains the engine of growth for the economy

Be involved in national debate, policy discussions and development planning

Cementing strong public-private partnership

The Solomon Islands Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SICCI) is recognised as the peak body representing private sector in the Solomon Islands.

This new position will work closely with the Chief Executive Officer and the rest of the Chamber Secretariat to ensure that SICCI delivers policies and conveys positions that support members, create jobs and ultimately contribute to economic development of the country.

The Executive Officer will be responsible for maintaining strong networks. This position will ensure SICCI engages strongly with Solomon Islands Government and its partners, in an approach promoting partnerships on core issues for private sector.

As part of the Secretariat, the Executive Officer will inform the development and implementation of annual business plans and associated budgets, and contribute to organisational goal of excellence in its advocacy and services-roles.

This position will be an immediate appointment.

The successful candidate will have a minimum of 5 years of experience working in the private sector, public sector, or non-government organisation and tertiary qualifications in either business, management, economics, political or social science.

The position is based in Honiara and will require some local and international travel.

The appointment is for 3 years and comes with an attractive remuneration package.

All applicants must provide a cover letter outlining their interest in the position, a current CV with copies of academic qualifications, and support letters from two referees, or alternatively, referees' contact details.

We welcome applications from both female and male candidates.

If you are interested, contact the CEO on phone 39542/39543 or email ceo@solomonchamber.com.sb
