Value for Members

Networking & Peer Learning Opportunities: Refer to calendar of events including Business After 5's, luncheons and breakfast meetings, bringing speakers from the business community together with Members to discuss current economic trends and issues affecting the Solomon Islands.

Policy and Advocacy: As a unified voice of our Members, we highlight change needed to policies designed to support businesses to succeed and build the future prosperity of the Solomon Islands. As a peak organization advocating for the private sector in the Solomon Islands we connect with stakeholders at a national and regional level to contribute to policies affecting the Pacific Island business community. Key areas we contribute to the dialogue of include advocating for tax reform, labour, land, infrastructure and supporting women in business and delivering jobs and growth opportunities for youth. SICCI takes a robust advocacy approach through well researched papers including clear position stance.

Development: Mentoring and training opportunities through consultation with experts and business gurus. Continue with export market access and raising the issues of industry sectors to the forefront including exploring solutions.

Solomon Islands Economic news and information updates: Information sharing through our newsletter, business trade directory, website, and social media and networking events.

Marketing and Promotion: Opportunity for sponsorship of events to promote your business at networking and open day events. As well as representation at business forums and missions targeting local and international audiences. Improved visibility of the chamber including the proactive dissemination of information and raising issues through media channels.

Funding & business development grants: Financial support is notified to Members through various funding schemes.

Solomon Islands Business Excellence Awards (BEA): Opportunity to be honoured during our annual awards night and fundraising gala in partnership with the Solomon Islands Government. These awards recognize business excellence in a range of industries within Solomon Islands.

It is a condition of this application that the Registered Business or Organisation is duly formed in Solomon Islands. Please attach copies of Company Registration, or in the case of a foreign investor, the FIB Certificate.

The Registered Business or Organisation agrees to pay the Membership Fee in accordance with the Terms of Payment on the invoice.
